

Economies and the Transformation of Landscape
24th Annual Meeting - April 21-23, 2005

Program Chairs: Lisa Cliggett and Chris Poole, Department of Anthropology, University of Kentucky

Local Arrangement Coordinators: Linda Welch and Deborah Nichols, Dartmouth College

Program

Thursday - April 21, 2005

5:00 - 9:00 PM

Registration

5:30 – 7:00

Reception : Dept of Anthropology, fourth floor Silsby Hall.

6:30 - 8:00

SEA Editorial Board Meeting: 317 Silsby, Anthropology Dept

8:00 - 10:00

SEA Board Meeting: 317 Silsby, Anthropology Dept

Friday - April 22, 2005

7:30 - 8:00

Registration: Hanover Inn

8:00 - 8:15

Welcome and Introductory Remarks: Wheelock Room , Hanover Inn
Lisa Cliggett, Chris Pool, Deborah Nichols

Session I – Livelihoods and Access to Resources

Chair: Dolores Koenig Location: Wheelock Room Hanover Inn

8:15 - 9:00

Elliot Fratkin, (Smith College). “Livelihood Change and Resource Stress with Pastoral Sedentarization in Northern Kenya .”

9:00-9:45

George M. Crothers , (U. Kentucky). “From Foraging to Farming: The emergence of property institutions and corporate groups in Kentucky Prehistory.”

9:45-10:00

Coffee Break

10:00 - 10:45

Veronica Perez Rodriguez , (Northern Arizona U.) “Household labor and landscape transformation in ancient Mixteca Alta , Oaxaca , Mexico .”

10:45 – 11:30

Paul Rivera, (Cal State U. Channel Islands) “Coffee and Abolition: Driving forces in 19th century Brazilian landscape transformation.”

11:30-12:00

Collective Discussion of Livelihoods and Access to Resources

12:00-1:30

Business Luncheon: Wheelock Room , Hanover Inn

1:00-1:30

Schneider Graduate Prize Winner. Nashieli Cecilia Rangel Loera “Cotija cheese and its new realities”

Session II – Political Economy and Landscape Transformation (part 1)

Chair: Stephen A. Kowalewski Location: Wheelock Room Hanover Inn

2:00 – 2:45

Juliet S. Erazo , (UC Berkeley) “Senses of space and the production of place in the Ecuadorian Amazon.”

2:45 – 3:30

Douglas James Bolender (Northwestern), John M. Steinberg (UCLA), E. Paul Durrenberger (Penn State). “Unsettled Landscapes: settlement patterns and the development of social inequality in Northern Iceland .”

3:30-4:00

Coffee Break

4:00 – 4:45

Thomas Hakansson. (Lund U. and U. Kentucky .) “The Power of Liminal Space: The political ecology of landscape boundaries in precolonial northern Tanzania.”

4:45 – 5:30

Timothy Murtha, (Penn State .) “Smallholder Landscapes: Agricultural intensification and production of the classic Maya.”

6:00 - 7:00

Distinguished Lecture : Timothy Earle

Location: Wheelock Room Hanover Inn

7:00

Dinner on your own

Saturday - April 23, 2005

Session III – Political Economy and Landscape Transformation (part 2)

Chair: Lillian Trager Location: 2 Rockefeller Center .

8:00 – 8:45

Paul Trawick , Cranfield University , England . “Reading History in an Irrigated Landscape: the drama of the commons in the Andes .”

8:45 -9:30

Carol Maclellan, Christa Walck, Michigan Tech U. “Landscape, Industry and Power in New Mexico 's Southwest.”

9:30 - 10:15

Collective discussion of Political Economy and Landscape Transformation

10:15 - 10:30

Coffee Break

Session IV – Beyond the Local

Chair: Lynne Milgram Location: 2 Rockefeller Center .

10:30 - 11:15

Eduardo S. Brondizio, Indiana U. “The ethnography of commodity chains: linking consumers, producers and the transformation of Amazonian landscapes.”

11:15 – 12:00

David A. Cleaveland, Daniela Soleri , UC Santa Barbara . “Genes in the landscape; Genotype-by-environment interaction, farmer knowledge and the political economy of transgenic crop varieties in the Third World .”

12:00 - 1:30

Lunch on your own in nearby area

Session V – Transformation in urban landscapes

Chair: Deborah Winslow Location: 2 Rockefeller Center .

1:30 - 2:15

Ty Matejowsky , U. Central Florida . “The Commercial Transformation of a Philippine Cityscape: A case from San Fernando City , La Union.”

2:15 - 3:00

Walter E. Little , SUNY Albany . “Crime, Maya handicraft vendors, and the social re/construction of market spaces in a tourism town.”

3:00 - 3:15

Coffee Break

3:15 – 4:15

Collective Discussion of Session IV, V and Whole Program.

4:45 – 6:00

Poster Session

Location: 1930 Room Rockefeller Center and Morrison Commons

6:30 (drinks)

7:00 (dinner)

Event: Optional Dinner: Vermont Country Pig Roast and Chicken Barbecue

Location: Hinman Forum-Morrison Commons , Rockefeller Center.

SEA Poster Session - 2005

Schneider Undergraduate Prize Winner, 2004: Kyle B. Lamb (Emory U.) “Original, Authentic and Uniquely Japanese: Understanding the Consumption of Imported Seconhand and English Language Clothing in Japan .”

Carmen Alveal (Johns Hopkins U.) “Economic Development, demographic pressure and land conflicts in the Eighteenth-Century Captaincy of Rio de Janeiro.”

Manon Boulianne (U. Laval , Quebec) “Fields, Lagoons and Chemical Plants : the Transformation of Landscape and Social Identities in Altamira , Tamaulipas.”

Kathleen Bubinas (U. of Wisconsin , Waukesha) “The Saliience of Visual Representations in Documenting Socioeconomic Change in an Ethnic Economy.”

Ryan Carey (Simons Rock College of Bard) “Constructing Capitalist Space: Landscape Imagery, Corporations and the State.”

Susan A. Crate (George Mason U.) “Looking Back to Move Forward: Sakha Memoryscapes and Post-Soviet Sustainable Livelihoods.”

Evan Marks Dennis (IndianaU.) “Plant Genetic Diversity as a Livelihood Resource: Institutions for Access to Plant Genetic Resources in Uzbekistan .”

Barbara Dilly (Creighton U.) “Folk Economies and the Cognitive Construction of River Recreation.”

Anthon Eff (Middle Tennessee State U.) “The Pawn Shop in the Shopping Mall: Null Sets in US Urban Landscapes.”

John R. Estes (University of New Mexico) “From Corporate Community to Capitalists: the organization of production in Mata Ortiz , Chihuahua .”

Kreg Ettenger (U. Southern Maine) “The Development of Northern Quebec and the Rise of Eeyou Istchee.”

Cynthia K. Isenhour (U. Kentucky) “Prized Possessions: Lakota Value Assignment in Shifting Landscapes.”

Olaf Jaime-Riverón (U. Kentucky) “ Greenstone and Landscape in the Olmec political Economy: A Viewpoint from some sites in the Southern Gulf Coast of Mexico.”

Patricia Lyons Johnson and James W. Wood (Pennsylvania State U.) “From Sustainable to Unsustainable in Orkney , Scotland : Three Hundred Years of Change.”

Yvonne Lassalle (Hunter College , CUNY) “The Waterfront Revisited: Participatory Democracy and Neoliberal Governmentality in New York City Urban Planning.”

Anru Lee (John Jay College of Criminal Justice/CUNY) “Portals and Pathways to Postmodern Nationhood: The Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) Systems in Taiwan.”

Thomas Ludewigs, Stefano Fiorini, and Eduardo Brondizio (Indiana U.) “Crediting Deforestation: Agricultural Credit, Farmers and Factors Affecting Land Use Change in the Amazon.”

Allison McBride (Moravian College) “Women, Factory Work and Community Development in El Paso Ciudad Juárez: A Comparison of the Centro de Orientación de la Mujer Obrera and La Mujer Obrera.”

Lynne Milgram (Ontario College of Art and Design) “Negotiating Marketscapes and Class through the Secondhand Clothing Trade in the Philippines .”

Azizur R. Molla and Jeff Cohen (Pennsylvania State U.) “Sanitation, Latrines and Cultural Beliefs among Rural Bangladeshis.”

Arthur D. Murphy (U. North Carolina , Greensboro), Fran Norris (Dartmouth Medical School and NCPTSD), and Eric C. Jones (U. of North Carolina , Greensboro)
“Environment, Disaster and Mental Health.”

Daniel Murphy (U. Kentucky) “Wealth Power and environmental knowledge in rural Mongolia : a research proposal.”

Julia Smith (Eastern Washington U.) “The Shifting Landscapes of Coffee Production: Costa Rica and Panama over Time.”

Ismael Vacarro (U. Washington Seattle) “Abandoned Mountains: Economic Transformations in Shifting Landscapes.”

Lindsay Watkins (Pennsylvania State U.) “Kelp Production in the Nineteenth Century Orcadian Economy: Local Responses to Global Demand.”

Jim Weil (Science Museum of Minnesota) “It's the Pits: The Historical Ecology of a Costa Rican Ceramic Artisan Industry and the Impending Depletion of Clay”

George W. Wenzel and Martha Dowsley (McGill U.) “Sport Polar Bear Hunting in the Canadian Arctic: Why it is not a win-win for Inuit subsistence.”